Proud to be Canadian: Our Stories is a juried photographic exhibition celebrating the 150th Anniversary of the Confederation of Canada. Renowned artists Freeman Patterson, Richard Martin and Charles Pachter selected the images.

The images portray a vibrant, colourful celebration of Canada from coast to coast. Our stories compliment and expand the visual narrative. The photographs speak from the hearts of the artists.

This exhibition is featured in the Living Arts Centre Gallery and on the 2nd floor Community Walls.

About the Mississauga Camera Club:

The MCC, founded in 1955, has more than 200 members. The club encourages a love of photography, the development of technical skills, and the sharing of experience and knowledge through member meetings, workshops, lectures, competitions, and exhibitions.
